

Pet Care Trust Law Firms in Tucson

Several law firms in Tucson specialize in estate planning and can help you set up a pet care trust to ensure your pet is cared for after you pass away.

1. Bouman Law Firm offers legal counsel for setting up pet trusts. These trusts allow you to allocate funds for the ongoing care of your pets, detailing the standard of care and veterinary needs, and specifying a trustee to manage the funds for your pet's benefit. You can also include instructions on what happens to remaining funds after the pet passes.

2. Kruchek Law, PLLC provides similar services, emphasizing the importance of setting aside funds for your pet's grooming, medical care, and food, with a legally enforceable trust to ensure that your wishes are carried out. They recommend calculating yearly pet expenses to determine how much should be placed in the trust.

These firms can help customize the trust to fit your specific needs and the type of care your pet requires. It's a good idea to reach out to them directly to discuss setting up a pet trust.
