“Taking Care” an Alzheimer's Story

Join us for a FREE Saturday afternoon screening and discussion of this critically acclaimed documentary film short featuring Seth and Lauren Rogan.

“This film is a part of us, as deeply personal as our journey with Alzheimer’s. We want to foster a sense of hope, empathy, and understanding in our audiences. We hope viewers will be inspired to improve their brain health, support caregivers, and advocate for a future centered on dementia prevention, treatment, and support. The time to take care is now.” - Seth and Lauren Rogan
